You are invited to attend this lunch session to define Unconscious Bias and its impact on people both personally and professionally. Become aware of when this occurs and what tools we can put into action.

Overview

The presentation will provide an introduction to unconscious bias, present research and stories to illustrate its impact in the workplace, and discuss the benefits of a diverse and inclusive workplace.

Guest Speaker: Commissioner Sally Sievers, Anti-Discrimination Commission NT

Commissioner Sally Sievers has been a lawyer in the Northern Territory since 1988, practising within government, in private practice and various stints as a Relieving Magistrate. Commissioner Sievers has been the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner for the Northern Territory since January 2013. She has focused the Commission's activities in the areas of Race and Disability Discrimination and Women's equality, in particular the impact of discrimination against women and families. This year the Commissioner is looking to partner with business to continue the focus in these areas.
